

ANGIE MATHOT

Country of Residence: Netherlands

Nationality: Belgian

I am Angie Mathot, born in Belgium. I cultivated my passion for doodling and studied graphic design at the St. Luc School of Fine Arts in Liège. Visual design has impacted my craft heavily, with vectors becoming my main means of creation and design principles helping to elevate my work. I realised illustration was my true calling, inspired by Klimt, Malika Favre and others. I started creating NFT art and developed my personal style, creating visual stories with minimalistic colour palettes and high contrasts.
