

JACQUI DAVIS

Country of Residence: UK

Nationality: British

Hi, I'm Jacqui Davis, a South African-born artist currently living in leafy Lytham St. Annes, England. My art is a combination colour and semi-realism, a blend inspired by passion for 2D animation. Clients enjoy the lighting and colour unique to my style. When I'm not busy painting, you'll find building a fantasy setting I've co-created with an artist friend since 2007.
